BUILDING RESILIENCE: A COMMUNITY RESPONSE

Resilience has been defined as the process of adapting well in the face of adversity, trauma, tragedy or stress. A movement is occurring both nationally and locally to reverse the negative effects of Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACES) by building resilience. Please join us as we explore these cutting edge developments in depth.

LOCATION OF CONFERENCE

The program will be offered at The Fawcett Center (2400 Olentangy River Road, Columbus, Ohio, 43210), located east of SR 315 between the Lane Avenue and Ackerman Road exits. A parking permit will be emailed to confirmed registrants prior to the conference date. Confirmed registrants will be permitted to park for free at The Fawcett Center on Thursday, May 4, 2017.

See www.fawcettcenter.com for more information and directions.

Meeting room temperatures often can be difficult to regulate. We suggest you bring a sweater or jacket to the conference.

TOPIC DESCRIPTIONS

“Community Resilience Coalition: Becoming a Trauma-Informed Community”

Marian Stuckey, MBA, MSW, LSW

Carly Mesnick, LPCC-S

This presentation will introduce the audience to the current process of helping Columbus become a trauma-informed community and what that entails. The audience will learn more about the Community Resilience Coalition including how it began and the progress the Coalition has made. The impact of trauma on a community level will also be reviewed as well as how resilience is fostered at this level.

“Resilience: The Biology of Stress and the Science of Hope - Panel Discussion”

Gail Hornor, Diane Lampkins, Carly Mesnick, Marian Stuckey and Shari Uncapher

This presentation will include a panel discussion to address attendee questions and provide expert insights into the topic of Resilience.

“Forensic Interviewing: Supporting Children, Families and Professionals”

Diane Lampkins, MA, LSW

This presentation will explore a coordinated approach to child abuse and a profile of collaborations that foster hope and healing.

“Dopey, Doc and Grumpy: A Model of Resilience”

Shari Uncapher, MSW, LISW-S

This presentation will discuss the practical definitions and concepts associated with resilience. The second half of the workshop will be the discussion of a model of resilience based on personal attributes.

“Building Resilience: The Importance of Screening, Intervention, and Anticipatory Guidance”

Gail Hornor, DNP, CPNP

This presentation will discuss the impact of child demographics and familial psychosocial characteristics on child sexual abuse re-victimization and explore pediatric health care provider practice behaviors related to child maltreatment. Both will be discussed in terms of resilience.
