Darkness to Light's Stewards of Children is an evidence-informed prevention solution that teaches parents, adults and caregivers on how to prevent, recognize and react responsibly to child sexual abuse.

The training includes video sessions with real people and real stories along with a virtual discussion led by a local expert on how to protect children. You will hear from survivors who were able to find healing and meet experts who work with children and families. Resources will also be provided to support healthy, happy kids.
